

This article is available on registration

Modern dance 'made in USA' is exported in Sambre

PUBLISHED 26/02/2013 - UPDATED 2013-02-26 21:24

By JULIEN CASTELLI

Since Monday, the rehearsals for "Dancing to connect intensely occupy the time of eighty dancers sambriens. Experienced or not, they have joined the project of the Battery Dance Company, a New York dance troupe which exports its know-how around the world. And she chose the Sambre as French destination! Yesterday, the prefect for equal opportunities, Pascal Joly, has toured the rehearsal rooms. The time is counted before the Saturday evening performance (20 h), Casadesus of Louvroil space.

Loading in progress...

Loading in progress...

3 sizes for the log

Journal PDF

The voice of the North such as you know it!

Your journal will load in a new window and you can flip through as you are used to.

You can then download it in PDF format for offline reference.

Overview

The digital newspaper

A new way to read your newspaper!

Download our application the Voix du Nord to rediscover your journal with a new layout!

Browse articles in blogs with your mouse and your keyboard, online or offline.